Alcohol and Drug Policy

Washington University seeks to encourage and sustain an academic environment that respects individual freedoms and promotes the health, safety, and welfare of its students, faculty, staff, and visitors. As adults, all students, faculty, staff, and visitors are expected to know and obey the applicable laws and all university rules and regulations and to be responsible for their own behavior.

Washington University complies with federal laws on drug and alcohol use prevention. These laws require that, as a condition of receiving federal funds (particularly student aid funds), Washington University adopt and implement a program to prevent the unlawful possession, use, and distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees. The manufacture, distribution, possession, or use of illicit drugs and the unlawful possession, use, sale, or distribution of alcohol on Washington university property, or as part of any university activities, are prohibited. WUPD has primary responsibility for the enforcement of state underage drinking laws as well as the enforcement of federal and state drug laws.

Anyone who violates the law or university policy is subject to discipline within the university. Students are subject to discipline under the University Student Conduct Code (visit <https://studentconduct.washu.edu/policy/student-conduct-code/>) and to sanctions ranging from warnings to expulsion. Potential sanctions are described in Section VI of the Code. Faculty and staff members are subject to a full range of sanctions, up to and including dismissal. Those who violate the law also may be subject to criminal prosecution.

Relevant state and federal statutory provisions setting forth the criminal offense and potential penalties are listed starting on page 22.

The university's Drug and Alcohol Policy was adopted in accordance with the Drug-Free Workplace Act and the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act and is published online in Course Listings, The Record, and employee, faculty, and student handbooks. The Drug and Alcohol Policy is also available at hr.wustl.edu/policies/Pages/DrugandAlcoholPolicy.aspx. The university also publishes a policy addressing alcohol at university events. This is located at <https://washu.edu/about-washu/university-policies/>.

ALCOHOL AND SUBSTANCE USE PREVENTION AND EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Early recognition and treatment of drug or alcohol use are important for successful rehabilitation, and for reduced personal, family, and social disruption.

Washington University encourages the earliest possible diagnosis and treatment for drug and alcohol misuse; however, the decision to seek diagnosis and accept treatment for drug or alcohol use is the responsibility of the individual.

The university encourages faculty, staff, and students to seek assistance in working with a substance use concern, or those concerns of a friend or family member, by contacting available resources. University resources include:

For students on the Danforth Campus:

All incoming first-year and transfer students are required to complete an online alcohol education and behavior assessment tool called the Year One College Behavior Profile.

Health Promotion Services staff members organize peer education programs and lead trainings for student groups and leaders. They post risk reduction messages and information on Student Health Services' social media and website (studenthealthcenter.washu.edu). They support the WashU Recovery Group which provides students in recovery from alcohol and/or drug use an opportunity to connect with other students with similar experiences. The group provides a safe place on campus for students to learn about resources, gain support, and connect. The group is not a recovery program; it is a resource that students can add to their support system while attending the university. Additional substance misuse recovery programs and meetings are offered near campus.

During the annual new undergraduate and transfer student orientation program in August, the Office of Student Transitions and Family Programs facilitates a program called “Bearings” that all new students attend with their residential communities. Transfer and exchange students also attend. “Bearings” is a series of thought-provoking and entertaining skits about the first-year experience at Washington University, presented by upper-class students. Students meet with their Residential College to hear from their Residential College Director (RCD), followed by a smaller group discussion led by their Resident Advisors and their Washington University Student Associates. The use of alcohol is addressed in the script for “Bearings.” The skit provides examples of bad choices that students make regarding their alcohol use and the negative personal consequences of those choices. Students are reminded that not all students choose to drink in college and those who choose to drink are reminded to do so responsibly. During the training of volunteer student WUSAs, the university’s alcohol and drug policies are discussed, as are the expectations of the WUSAs in fostering a safe environment in the communities where they are assigned.

The Office of Residential Life continually provides training that addresses substance use to undergraduate Resident Advisors (RA). Ongoing training is conducted in the following areas:

- the effects of alcohol on the body;
- the university policies concerning drugs and alcohol;
- strategies for confronting students who have had too much to drink;
- techniques for talking with students who may have a drinking problem; and
- resources for RAs to refer students who may need additional support with alcohol or other drug concerns.

RAs are encouraged to provide at least one community program which educates undergraduate students on the risks associated with the use of alcohol in the first 6 weeks of the fall semester. These programs may be lectures, bulletin boards, community discussions or a related format, but must focus on making responsible choices. Students are educated on the law and the university policies, while also being coached to make informed, responsible decisions.

The Office of Human Resources is instrumental in distribution of the university’s Drug and Alcohol Policy to university employees. The full policy or reference to the policy with directions to the entire policy is included in various publications, including the staff employee handbooks, supervisor policy manuals, Faculty Information Handbook, and online on the Human Resources websites; it is also reviewed in various forums, including faculty and staff orientations, supervisor/manager training programs and human resource policy overview sessions.

Key to the promotion of this policy, along with the resources and programs available to faculty and staff members seeking more information and assistance, is the university’s Employee Assistance Program (EAP). The university’s Employee Assistance Program also provides confidential, professional assistance to benefits-eligible university employees and their family members to help resolve problems that are affecting their personal life or job performance. In addition to traditional EAP services and support that include crisis intervention and drug and alcohol counseling, the university’s EAP offers online access to an array of information resources such as self assessments, expert articles, reference materials, bulletin boards, chat rooms, online databases, and provider searches to assist and educate on a variety of topics. As a part of WashU’s employee outreach, the EAP has been asked to include drug and alcohol education/prevention programs among the services it is contracted to provide.

The program is managed by Work-Life Solutions, a nationally known professional consulting firm specializing in EAP services. Employees can contact Work-Life Solutions 24 hours a day, seven days a week to arrange a confidential appointment with a specialist. EAP specialists have professional training and expertise in a wide range of issues such as marriage and family problems, alcohol and drug misuse, emotional and psychological concerns, financial difficulties, stress, and much more.

In addition, the university has established an employee wellness initiative to promote evidence-based, data-driven wellness programs for benefits-eligible faculty, staff, postdoctoral appointees, and clinical fellows. This program provides opportunities for employees to assess their current health status, engage in health education programs, set goals for improving health decision-making, and track progress.

Numerous non-university counseling programs also exist in the St. Louis metropolitan area. Many programs advertise extensively in local media. Consultation with one’s personal physician is advised prior to self-referral to such non-university programs. For further information regarding referral to such programs, contact Student Health Services on the Danforth or Medical campuses or your private physician.

University Drug and Alcohol Policy

Washington University is committed to maintaining a safe and healthful environment for members of the University community by promoting a drug-free environment as well as one free of the abuse of alcohol. Violations of this policy will be handled according to existing policies and procedures concerning the conduct of faculty, staff, and students.

This policy is adopted in accordance with the Drug-Free Workplace Act and the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Washington University strictly prohibits the unlawful manufacture, sale, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of controlled substances or alcohol on University property or as a part of any University activity. All faculty, staff and students must comply with this policy as a condition of their employment or enrollment. Faculty and staff members are prohibited from reporting to work under the influence of alcohol, chemicals, or drugs, including legally obtained prescription drugs, which impair one's ability to perform normal work activities. All faculty and staff members must notify their immediate supervisor(s) within five (5) days of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace or in the conduct of University business.

VIOLATIONS

Violations of the standards of conduct will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis following the policies and procedures applicable to, as appropriate, faculty, staff or students. Sanctions may include, among other things, reprimand, warning, suspension, probation, expulsion, or termination. Referral to an appropriate assistance or rehabilitation program also may be appropriate. Referral for prosecution may occur for serious violations. The Drug-Free Workplace Act requires the University: (1) within 10 days after receiving notice that an employee has been convicted of any criminal drug statute violation occurring in the workplace or in the conduct of University business, to notify appropriate government agencies of such conviction; and (2) within 30 days after receiving such notice, to take appropriate personnel action against such employee up to and including termination and/or to require the employee to satisfactorily participate in a drug abuse assistance or rehabilitation program.

AUTHORIZED USE OF PRESCRIBED MEDICINE

Faculty and staff members undergoing prescribed medical treatment with any drug that interferes with their work activity must report this treatment to their supervisor. Prescribed medication should be kept in its original container, which identifies the drug, date, and prescribing doctor.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL COUNSELING, TREATMENT OR REHABILITATION OR RE-ENTRY PROGRAMS

Early recognition and treatment of drug or alcohol abuse are important for successful rehabilitation, and for reduced personal, family, and social disruption. WashU encourages the earliest possible diagnosis and treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, however, the decision to seek diagnosis and accept treatment for drug or alcohol abuse is the responsibility of the individual. The University encourages faculty, staff, and students to seek assistance in dealing with a substance abuse problem, or those problems of a family member, by contacting available resources. University resources include Student Health Services (students on Danforth Campus, 314-935-6666); Student Health Services (students at WashU Medicine, 314-362-3523), the Psychological Service Center (314-935-6555), the Department of Psychiatry (314-286-1700), and the Employee Assistance Program (844-365-4587). Numerous non-University counseling programs exist in the St. Louis metropolitan area. Many programs advertise extensively in local media. Consultation with one's personal physician is advised prior to self-referral to such non-University programs. For further information regarding referral to such programs, contact the Student Health Services, WashU Medicine Student and Employee Health, or your private physician.

HEALTH RISKS

Alcohol and drugs can alter a person's thinking and judgment, and can lead to health risks, including addiction, drugged driving, infectious disease, and adverse effects on pregnancy. Information on commonly used drugs with the potential for misuse or addiction and the associated health risks can be found at <https://nida.nih.gov/research-topics/commonly-used-drugs-charts>.

Drugs: A detailed description of the health risks associated with abuse of controlled substances is provided in the chart, Drug Uses and Effects, published by the U.S. Department of Justice's Drug Enforcement Administration (hr.wustl.edu, Workplace Support, Key Policies); Appendix A. Alcohol: Abuse of alcohol can produce severe health risks, including death. Alcohol consumption causes several marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low-to-moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse. Moderate-to-high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person's ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described. Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver. Women who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicated that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than other youngsters of becoming alcoholics.

LEGAL SANCTIONS

Drugs: The manufacture, possession, sale, distribution, and use of controlled substances are prohibited by federal, state and local law; punishments range from fines to life imprisonment. Chapter 579 of the Missouri statutes prohibit these actions, and the associated penalties are found in Chapter 558 of the Missouri statutes, which range from a fine up to $2,000 for a misdemeanor or $10,000 for a Class C, D, or E felony or imprisonment from fifteen days to life depending on the nature of the offense.

The Federal Controlled Substances Act prohibits the knowing, intentional, and unauthorized manufacture, distribution, or dispensing of any controlled substance or the possession of any controlled substance with intent to manufacture, distribute, or dispense. A detailed description of the penalties associated with illegal drug trafficking is provided in the Federal Trafficking Penalties chart, published by the U.S. Department of Justice's Drug Enforcement Administration, found at <https://www.dea.gov/drug-information/drug-policy>. In addition, federal penalties for Simple Possession of a controlled substance can be found in 21 U.S. Code Section 844.

Alcohol: Missouri's Liquor Control Law found in Chapter 311 of the Missouri statutes makes it illegal for a person under the age of 21 years to purchase, attempt to purchase, or possess any intoxicating liquor (Section 311.325, RSMo). It is also illegal for certain individuals to provide intoxicating liquor to a person under the age of 21 (Section 311.310, RSMo). Violation of this provision can result in a fine between $50 and $1000 and/or imprisonment for a maximum term of one year. County and municipality ordinances contain similar prohibitions and sanctions.

LOSS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION BENEFITS

The Missouri Workers' Compensation Act requires the forfeiture of benefits or compensation otherwise payable to an employee when the use of alcohol or non-prescribed controlled drugs is the proximate cause of the employee's injury. At a minimum, the Act provides for a reduction in benefits or compensation when the employee is injured while using alcohol or non-prescribed controlled drugs.

TESTING REQUIREMENT FOR COMMERCIAL DRIVERS LICENSES (CDLS)

To meet requirements of the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT), the University has established a drug and alcohol testing program for its employees who are drivers of its commercial motor vehicles requiring commercial driver's licenses (CDLs), and who perform safety-sensitive functions, e.g., operate a vehicle requiring the display of hazardous material placards. This drug and alcohol testing program also applies to applicants selected for hire for designated safety-sensitive positions. Participation in the drug and alcohol testing program is a condition of employment for these positions. This program requires pre-employment drug testing as well as DOT mandated random testing of current employees who are required to have CDLs. Questions regarding this requirement may be directed to the Designated Employee Representative for this program or to Human Resources.

ACCIDENTS INVOLVING UNIVERSITY-OWNED VEHICLES

The University reserves the right to require that an employee undergo immediate drug and/or alcohol testing if the employee is involved in a vehicular accident while driving a University-owned vehicle.

REASONABLE CAUSE:

When the University has reasonable grounds to suspect that an employee unlawfully manufactured, distributed, possessed, or used controlled substances, alcohol, or drug paraphernalia on University property or at any of its activities, the University reserves the right to inspect the employee's locker, desk, or other University property under the control of the employee.

WORKPLACE DRUG TESTING

Pre-employment drug testing where required by law, or a strong business case exists to protect the safety and welfare of the University and its faculty, staff, students, patients, and other members of the University community, a pre-employment drug screen will be performed on final candidates for certain positions. Generally, all direct patient care and most patient facing positions require successful completion of the urine drug screen. Positions which require specific drug testing will be identified in the job posting. In addition, the hiring manager will notify the final candidate when this requirement exists and post a contingent offer and acceptance, will work with the Office of Human Resources to conduct the steps necessary to obtain a valid, confidential drug screen.

REASONABLE CAUSE:

Inspection: When the University has reasonable grounds to suspect that an employee unlawfully manufactured, distributed, possessed, or used controlled substances, alcohol, or drug paraphernalia on University property or at any of its activities, the University reserves the right to inspect the employee's locker, desk, or other University property under the control of the employee.

For Cause Drug Testing: With Human Resources approval and under the following circumstances, an employee may be required to be tested to determine the presence of drugs or alcohol in an employee's system:

1. When there is reasonable suspicion that an employee is under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
2. When the employee has been involved in an on-the-job accident or near accident while on University property or business and there is reasonable suspicion that drugs or alcohol may have been a contributing factor.

3. When the employee is working in a position where public safety is at risk.
4. When monitoring the adherence to a required rehabilitation treatment program and up to two years after completion of the program. If an employee is asked to take a drug test, the supervisor should contact Human Resources and a plan will be made to escort the employee to BarnesCare or alternate facility as designated by HR where sample collection will take place. The employee's department will assume the cost of the test.

Washington University Student Conduct Code

I. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

A. Purpose

Washington University in St. Louis is a community that embraces our mission to act in the service of truth through the formation of leaders, the discovery of knowledge and the treatment of patients for the betterment of our region, our nation, and our world. In support of this mission, it is expected that our Students strive for personal and academic integrity, treat others with dignity and respect, and act as responsible citizens as members of our University community.

The Washington University in St. Louis Student Conduct Code (“the Code”) sets forth community standards and expectations for University Students. These community standards and expectations are intended to foster an environment conducive to working, learning and inquiry. Each Student is held to the expectations outlined in the Code.

Freedom of thought and expression as well as respect for different points of view are essential to the University’s academic mission. Nothing in the Code should be construed to limit the lawful, free and open exchange of ideas and viewpoints, even if that exchange proves to be offensive, distasteful or disturbing to some. However, such speech must conform to University policies.

The Code also describes general procedures that may be used to ensure that these standards and expectations are upheld by all Students. The University is committed to ensuring that Students adhere to University policies, take responsibility for their actions and recognize how their choices may affect others.

B. Inherent Authority of the University

Nothing in the Code should be construed as limiting the University’s inherent authority to take necessary and appropriate action to (1) further its mission and (2) protect the working and learning environment and the safety and well-being of the University community. The responsibility of Student Conduct Administrators and Decision-Makers is concurrent with that of the administration of the University and does not displace the University’s administrative responsibility to address instances of discrimination, harassment and threats to individuals or property. Furthermore, the authority and procedures described in the Code supplement, but do not supersede, rights retained by the University in its housing and residential life contracts and leases.

C. Interpretation of the Code and Standards of Conduct

The Code is not a civil or criminal legal code. It is intended to provide general notice to Students of the University’s expectations and describe the types of behavior that conflict with University standards. Importantly, the Code’s provisions are not designed to be exhaustive; the Code should be read broadly.

D. Scope of the Code

1. Students and Student Groups are subject to student conduct procedures if they engage in behavior that occurs (1) on Campus; or (2) off campus when such behavior disrupts or adversely affects the University community and/or surrounding neighborhoods in the pursuit of the University’s objectives.
2. The University reserves the right to investigate and respond to any report of an alleged violation of the Code occurring on or off campus and alleged to have been committed by:
 - a. Student or Student Group.
 - b. Any person who has accepted an offer of admission as a Student extended by any School at the University and is expected to be an incoming Student.
 - c. Any person who is not currently enrolled as a Student but has a continuous relationship with the University, including but not limited to continuing to reside in University property, or who is on an approved leave of absence or studying abroad through direct enrollment at another institution.
 - d. Any person who is not currently enrolled as a Student but is accused of an academic integrity violation allegedly committed while enrolled as a Student.

E. Proceedings

Student Conduct Code proceedings are intended to be informal, fair and timely. Procedures governing criminal or civil courts, including formal rules of evidence, are not applicable. Deviations from the procedures set forth in the Code or as provided by a Decision-Maker do not invalidate a proceeding or decision unless such deviation clearly results in significant prejudice to a Student Complainant, a Respondent or the University.

F. Violation of Local, State or Federal Law

Students or Student Groups may be accountable to both governmental authorities and to the University for acts that constitute violations of both applicable law and the Code. The University may refer a Student or Student Group to appropriate law enforcement agencies if it believes the alleged conduct at issue may constitute a violation of law.

Student Conduct Code proceedings at the University will not be subject to challenge on the grounds that criminal charges involving the same incident have been filed, prosecuted, dismissed, reduced or otherwise resolved by governmental authorities, or that such proceedings constitute double jeopardy (or a similar equivalent).

G. Violation of other University Policies

Students or Student Groups alleged to have violated certain University policies (e.g., the Research Integrity Policy) may be subject to proceedings under the Student Conduct Code as well as procedures and determinations pursuant to that other policy. Student Conduct Code proceedings will not be subject to challenge on the grounds that allegations involving the same incident have been filed or resolved, or that such proceedings constitute double jeopardy.

H. Time Limitations for Bringing a Complaint

Except as set forth herein, a Complaint alleging a violation of the Code may be brought at any time so long as the Respondent is a current Student or Student Group at the University, as defined in section II, and has not completed their program at the University and the University has not conferred their degree. Complaints alleging an academic integrity violation, however, may be brought against any current or former Student at any time. Potential Complainants are reminded that the University's ability to effectively investigate Complaints can be hampered or negated by the passage of time. Potential Complainants are therefore encouraged to file Complaints in a timely manner.

I. Amendment of the Code

The University reserves the right to add to, modify or otherwise revise or amend the Code, as well as any policies and procedures set forth herein, at its sole discretion and without notice. Substantive changes to the Offenses under the Code (see section III) generally will not apply retroactively.

II. DEFINITIONS

A. Administrative Hearing

A procedure whereby a Student Conduct Administrator investigates and determines whether a Respondent is responsible or not responsible for one or more alleged Code Offenses and imposes Sanctions, if appropriate.

B. Academic Integrity Board (AIB)

An appointed body that hears and decides Complaints involving allegations of academic misconduct that are referred to it by Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost.

C. Business Day

Any weekday on which the University is in operation and that is not designated as a holiday on the University's official calendar.

D. Campus

All property owned, leased, managed or rented by the University or a subsidiary of the University.

E. Complainant

A University Community Member who initiates a Complaint alleging behavior that may constitute a Code Offense. Representatives of the University (e.g., Dean of Students, Residential Life, Washington University Police Department) may serve as a Complainant based on one or more reports received from faculty, staff, Students or third parties.

F. Complaint

A written submission reporting behavior of a Student or Student Group alleged to be in violation of the Code to the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards or other University office designated to accept Complaints under the Code. A Complaint can be filed by any University Community Member. In cases administered by the Gender Equity and Title IX Compliance Office, third parties may file a Complaint if the alleged behavior and accused Student Respondent are within the scope and jurisdiction of both the Code and the Gender Equity and Title IX grievance procedures.

G. Consent

Consent is an affirmative and voluntary decision to engage in sexual activity, granted through mutually understood words or actions. Consent cannot be assumed from arousal, silence, passivity, lack of resistance, or the existence of a previous dating, marital, or sexual relationship. Consent to engage in sexual activity must exist from the beginning to the end of each instance of sexual activity, and for each form of sexual contact. Consent may be withdrawn by any party at any time through mutually understood words or actions that communicate a desire to stop. If consent is withdrawn, sexual activity must end immediately.

Sexual activity that is coerced is not voluntary and, therefore, not consensual. Coercion is words or conduct, including intimidation, express or implied threats of violence or other harm, or undue pressure, that unreasonably restrict a person's ability to choose whether to engage in sexual activity. Coercion is more than an effort to persuade, entice, or attract another person to engage in sexual activity. The totality of the circumstances will be considered in determining whether a person's words or actions rise to the level of coercion, including, but not limited to, the frequency, intensity, and duration of the alleged coercive behavior and whether the Complainant was isolated from others during the alleged incident.

An individual who is incapacitated is unable to give consent. In such circumstances, the Respondent will be held responsible if the Respondent either knew or a reasonable person in the same position would have known that the other party was incapacitated and therefore could not consent to the sexual activity.

Incapacitation is the inability, temporarily or permanently, to give consent because the individual is mentally and/or physically helpless due to a medical condition or the voluntary or involuntary consumption of drugs and/or alcohol, or the individual is unconscious, asleep, or otherwise unaware that the sexual activity is occurring.

H. Decision-Maker

An individual or a panel designated by the University to review a Complaint and determine whether it is more likely than not that a Respondent has engaged in behavior that constitutes a Code Offense. Decision-Makers may include, but are not limited to, Student Conduct Administrators, the Student Conduct Board, the University Sexual Harassment Investigation Board and the Academic Integrity Board.

I. Hold

An administrative action that prevents a Student from registering for classes, dropping or adding courses, withdrawing, changing grade options after registration and obtaining an official transcript.

J. Notice of Complaint

Written notice to a Student that includes a brief description of the reported behavior alleged to be in violation of the Code, a statement of the alleged Code Offenses and information regarding the procedures to be followed.

K. Panel Hearing

A procedure presided over by a Chair at which the relevant panel considers a Complaint alleging a violation of the Code, determines if a Respondent is responsible or not responsible for an alleged Code Offense and, if applicable, imposes Sanctions.

L. Pre-Hearing

A meeting held in advance of a Student Conduct Board (SCB) Panel Hearing or University Sexual Harassment Investigation Board (USHIB) Panel Hearing presided over by the SCB or USHIB Chair and generally attended by the Respondent, the Complainant and their respective Support Persons, a representative from the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards or GETIXCO, respectively and a representative from the Office of General Counsel. During the Pre-Hearing, the Respondent and Complainant are given opportunities to discuss their proposed list of Witnesses and documents. Matters that may require resolution by the SCB or USHIB Chair prior to the SCB or USHIB Panel Hearing may be discussed as well.

M. Preponderance of Evidence

The standard used by a Decision-Maker when evaluating the evidence and determining whether a Respondent is or is not in violation of the Code. The standard is also referred to as "more likely than not".

N. Respondent

A Student, or a Student Group, alleged to have violated the Code.

O. Sanction

A measure, or measures, imposed against a Respondent who has been found by a Decision-Maker to have violated the Code.

P. Student

Any person who is registered in one or more courses for academic credit in an undergraduate or graduate-level degree-seeking program offered by a School of Washington University in St. Louis or who is otherwise engaged in activities pursuant to the degree program requirements. If also registered as Students, teaching/research assistants and assistants in instruction are classified as Students for purposes of the Code.

Q. Student Conduct Administrator

A person or a University office of the University whose responsibilities include the administration of procedures under the Student Conduct Code. Student Conduct Administrators may include, but are not limited to, staff in University offices such as the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, the Department of Campus Life, the Gender Equity and Title IX Compliance Office, the Office of Institutional Equity, the Office of Residential Life, Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost, School of Medicine's Office of Medical Student Affairs, some Schools and their Deans and graduate School administrators for academic and professional integrity cases. Please also see paragraph I.D.2 for the scope of the Code.

R. Student Conduct Board (SCB)

S. Student Conduct Board (SCB) Chair

The SCB Chair also serves as the appellate officer and rules on appeals of decisions made by the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards and by other University bodies, as necessary.

U. Support Person

Any one person chosen by a Respondent, Complainant or Witness to accompany them at any meeting or interview throughout the student conduct procedure. A Support Person serves at the Student's own expense, if any, and may include, for example, a friend, faculty member, advisor or parent. The Support Person's role is to provide support, advice or assistance to the person requesting their presence. The Support Person is not permitted to actively participate in any part of the procedure and may not serve as a fact Witness or a party in the proceedings. Therefore, if the individual personally witnessed the events at issue or has other first-hand information relevant to the factual circumstances, they may not serve as a Support Person.

V. University Community Member

Any Washington University in St. Louis faculty member, Student or employee.

W. University Sexual Harassment Investigation Board (USHIB)

Hears cases referred to it by the Gender Equity and Title IX Compliance Office involving allegations of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and/or domestic violence, stalking based on sex and other sexual misconduct that may be in violation of the Code.

X. Witness

A person who may have knowledge about or other information related to a Complaint alleging a violation of the Code.

III. OFFENSES

A. Any Student or Student Group that aids, conspires with, attempts or agrees to commit a Student or Student Group who commits a Code Offense may be held accountable and sanctioned to the same extent as the Student or Student Group who has committed the Offense.

A Student or Student Group may also be held accountable for the conduct of any visitor who engages in an act that is prohibited by the Code.

Allegations of the the following Offenses by a Student or Student Group are subject to student conduct procedures under the provisions of the Code.

1. Academic Integrity: Academic or professional misconduct includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, fabrication of data or records, impermissible collaboration, résumé or credential falsification, unauthorized use of resources, violation of test-taking conditions or otherwise engaging in activity prohibited by the University or applicable School's Academic Integrity and Professional Integrity policies.

- ii. Request an academic benefit based on false information or deception. This includes requesting an extension of time, a better grade or a recommendation from an instructor.
- iii. Make any changes (including adding material or erasing material) on any test paper, problem set, or class assignment being submitted for a re-grade.

Life policies, committed by any of their members or by others associated with the Student Group or organization in the event that the Student Group or its leaders, officers or spokespersons have given implied or overt consent or encouragement to the member alleged to have violated the Code.

IV. ADMINISTRATION OF THE CODE

A. The Student Conduct Code is administered by the offices and bodies set out below.

1. Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards

a. The Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards (OSCCS) oversees the administration of the University's Student Conduct Code. OSCCS staff serve as Student Conduct Administrators; in this role, they review all Complaints alleging a Code violation that are submitted to OSCCS.

b. Following initial review, OSCCS either investigates and adjudicates the Complaint through an Administrative Hearing or refers the Complaint to the SCB or to another University office (see below) for adjudication.

c. If OSCCS retains the Complaint, the assigned Student Conduct Administrator investigates the facts of the Complaint and an Administrative Hearing is held. Complaints investigated and heard by OSCCS are governed by procedures posted on the OSCCS website.

d. If, as a result of the evidence presented, the Student Conduct Administrator determines that it is more likely than not that the Respondent has committed the alleged violation of the Code, OSCCS will impose appropriate Sanctions. OSCCS is not authorized to suspend, expel or otherwise directly terminate the status of a Student, unless by agreement with the Student. However, OSCCS is authorized to revoke a Student Group's status.

2. Other Student Conduct Administrators:

Representatives of a number of other University offices may serve as Student Conduct Administrators responsible for reviewing and adjudicating Complaints alleging violations of the Code. These offices include the Department of Campus Life, the Gender Equity and Title IX Compliance Office, the Office of Residential Life, Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost, and the School of Medicine's Office of Medical Student Affairs, as well as some Schools and their Deans.

3. Student Conduct Board

a. An assigned panel from the SCB hears and decides cases referred to it by OSCCS or a Student Conduct Administrator in another University office. Procedures for SCB Panel Hearings are governed by procedures posted on the OSCCS website. The SCB also performs other duties as called for by the Code.

b. The SCB has the authority to suspend, expel or otherwise directly terminate the status of a Student.

c. SCB members including the SCB Chair, selected from faculty, staff and Students, are appointed for a two-year term by OSCCS and may be reappointed. OSCCS consults with and seeks nominations from Faculty Senate Council, Student Union, Graduate-Professional Student Council, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and Human Resources. OSCCS retains final authority to select SCB members and SCB Chairs. SCB members may be reappointed. Members of the Faculty Senate Council, Student Union Executive Council, officers of the Graduate-Professional Student Council, and officers of the University may not serve on the SCB.

d. The SCB Chair, a University staff or faculty member, is appointed by OSCCS and may serve without limitation for consecutive terms. The Chair presides over all SCB procedures.

e. OSCCS selects SCB panel members to be convened for a SCB Panel Hearing which will include three members, including the SCB Chair. OSCCS determines which SCB members will comprise the panel for each case. A Student member will comprise a portion of the Hearing panel in every case. Reasonable attempts are made to designate peer representation of a graduate or undergraduate Student member on every SCB Hearing panel.

4. The Gender Equity and Title IX Compliance Office and the University Sexual Harassment Investigation Board

a. The Gender Equity and Title IX Compliance Office (GETIXCO) receives and investigates Complaints that involve allegations of sex-based discrimination, sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking based on sex. GETIXCO either investigates and adjudicates the Complaint or, in its discretion, may refer the Complaint to another appropriate University office, Hearing body, or Student Conduct Administrator (e.g., OSCCS, SCB, USHIB, the Office of Institutional Equity or Human Resources) for investigation and/or Hearing. If GETIXCO or its designee investigates a Complaint against a Student Respondent and a violation is found, GETIXCO may impose appropriate Sanctions.

b. The USHIB is composed of faculty, staff, and Student members.

c. Complaints investigated and heard by a USHIB panel or GETIXCO are governed by separate investigation and hearing procedures found on the GETIXCO website. Complaints may allege other violations of the Code, in which case GETIXCO or the USHIB may investigate and exercise jurisdiction over such Complaints in their entirety, as long as the additional charges arise out of the same set of facts and circumstances or are related to the alleged incident(s). The USHIB may elect to refer the other charges to GETIXCO, OSCCS or SCB for Hearing and resolution.

d. Following a determination by a USHIB Panel that it is more likely than not that a Respondent has committed a violation of the Code, Sanctions will be imposed in accordance with the applicable USHIB grievance procedures and may include suspension or expulsion.

5. Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost and the Academic Integrity Board

- a. Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost receives Complaints that involve allegations of misconduct in violation of University (or a School's) academic integrity policies. Upon receipt of a Complaint, Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost initiates the hearing and adjudication process, including recommendation of appropriate Sanctions if a violation is found. In evaluating the Complaint to determine whether there is a reasonable basis to move forward with adjudication, the Office may conduct additional investigation at its discretion. The Office may refer the Complaint to another appropriate University office, Hearing body, or Student Conduct Administrator (e.g., OSCCS, AIB, SCB) for investigation and/or Hearing.
- b. The AIB is composed of faculty and Student members.
- c. Complaints received by Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost or the AIB are governed by procedures that are posted on the Academic Integrity webpage on the Office of the Provost's website. Complaints may allege other violations of the Code, in which case Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost or the AIB may investigate and exercise jurisdiction over such Complaints in their entirety as long as the additional allegations arise out of the same set of facts and circumstances or are related to the alleged incident of academic misconduct. The AIB may also refer the other allegations to another appropriate Decision-Maker for investigation and adjudication.
- d. In the event of a determination by the AIB that it is more likely than not that a Student committed a violation of the Code, Sanctions are imposed according to the applicable procedures and may include suspension or expulsion.

6. Authority of Schools Over Graduate and Graduate Professional Students

- a. Each School at the University may establish an academic integrity officer and/or a panel to hear and decide cases of alleged academic or professional misconduct by its non-PhD graduate or graduate professional Students. Schools that so choose are required to create procedures to govern the process of investigating and adjudicating the Complaints filed.
- i. The School Dean, or a designee, determines the composition of such a panel and the scope of the panel's authority, which will not exceed the parameters set out immediately below.
- ii. The panel has authority to impose or recommend appropriate Sanctions to the School Dean, including suspension or expulsion, if academic or professional misconduct is determined.
- iii. Appeals of decisions made by an academic and professional integrity panel of a School may be made to the School Dean, whose decision is final. This includes decisions of a School's academic and professional integrity panel where the panel is vested with such authority, and the panel's decision is to impose the Sanctions of suspension or expulsion. Schools are permitted, but not required, to establish an intermediate level of appeal that must be completed before a final appeal to the Dean.
- iv. Except for cases falling within Section IV.A.6.a(iii) above, any appeal from a decision of a Dean of a School to suspend or expel a Student will be made in accordance with the provisions of Section VI of the Code.
- b. PhD students, regardless of School, follow the Academic and Professional Integrity Policy for PhD students. The scope, procedures, and appeals process are described within that policy.
- c. If a School does not establish an academic integrity officer or panel or if an established officer or panel fails to function, Complaints of academic or professional misconduct against graduate or graduate professional Students may be heard by Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost, the AIB or the SCB.

B. Internal Student Group and Standards Board Procedures

The Sorority and Fraternity Life (SFL) Standards Board hears and decides cases referred to it by Campus Life or a Student Conduct Administrator in another University office pursuant to the procedures established in Campus Life.

Student Groups may establish procedures that they can use to determine if a member has violated the group's expectations of its members and/or internal policies, as well as apply appropriate remedies for Student members. The University regards it as essential that such procedures, investigations and remedies be conducted in a fair manner.

Student Groups are strictly prohibited from taking any investigative or other actions with regard to allegations of sexual harassment, sexual assault, hazing or other alleged violations that are the exclusive responsibility of GETIXCO or OSCCS.

C. Temporary Appointments

In the event that Student Conduct Administrators or other individuals with roles in investigating and adjudicating alleged violations of the Student Conduct Code are unavailable to serve as described above, the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, Provost, Dean of Students, Dean of a School or their designees may serve as the Student Conduct Administrator or appoint an appropriate University official to serve temporarily in that capacity.

V. SANCTIONS

A. Subject to the limitations described below in paragraph V.B.7., a Sanction may be imposed following a determination that a violation of the Code has occurred. A Student's entire academic record, Student conduct record, and criminal history, if appropriate and relevant, may be considered in determining the appropriate Sanction. The Respondent is responsible for any financial costs associated with a Sanction.

1. Warning: A written notice of a Code violation finding and that a continuation or repetition of Code violations may result in a more severe Sanction.
2. Written Reprimand: A written reprimand, as well as a second notice that a continuation or repetition of Code violations may result in a more severe Sanction.

C. Academic Misconduct

If academic misconduct is determined to have occurred, the AIB may recommend that the faculty member in whose course the academic misconduct occurred consider a grade penalty, for example, that the grade of the Respondent be lowered or that no credit be given. The final decision regarding any grade penalty, however, is at the faculty member's total discretion.

D. Sanctioning of Student Groups

As set forth in the Code, Student Groups are subject to the same or modified Sanctioning provisions as individual Students, including, but not limited to, revocation of the Student Group's status. Campus Life policies provide a full listing of Student Group regulations and Sanctioning.

E. Failure to Comply with Sanctions

If a Student or Student Group fails to satisfactorily comply with an assigned Sanction (or Sanctions), a Hold may be placed on the Student's record and/or the Student or Student Group may be subject to other interim measures (e.g., restricting their participation in University events and activities). The Hold will be removed upon completion of the assigned Sanction. Other circumstances created by failure to comply with an assigned Sanction are outlined in section III of the Code.

B. Grounds for Appeal

1. A Student may initiate an appeal on any of the following grounds:

2. Grade penalties imposed by a faculty member for academic misconduct are not considered a Sanction under the Code and are not appealable.

C. Appeal Officer Authority and Actions

The appeal officer is not permitted to substitute their judgment of the facts for that of the Decision-Maker. The appeal officer, whose decision is final, may take the following actions:

 - a. There is evidence that the Student has committed an Offense under the Code or the Student has been indicted or otherwise formally charged with a crime; and
 - b. There is evidence that the Student's continued presence on the University Campus or in the University community poses a substantial threat to the Student, to others or to the ability of others to continue their daily University activities.

2. The suspending authority will limit the scope of the temporary suspension to those parameters necessary to protect those who might be harmed by the Student's actions. Access to University-owned, -leased, -managed, or -rented property, the Campus, or to University events or activities, may be limited. In cases of substantially disruptive or dangerous behavior, the suspending authority may deny the Student access to the University-owned or -leased, -managed, or -rented property, and/or prohibit class attendance and participation in University events and activities.
3. Written notice of the temporary suspension setting out the scope and rationale, as well as the appeal procedures under the Code will be sent to the Student at their University email address.
4. A Student wishing to appeal a temporary suspension can submit a written appeal to the suspending authority within five (5) Business Days from the date of the written notice of the temporary suspension. In order to be reviewed and acted upon, the appeal must question one or more of the following issues:
 - a. The reliability of the information about the Student's conduct on which the suspending authority based the decision to issue a temporary suspension.
 - b. If a reasonable basis exists for believing that the Student's continued presence on Campus poses a substantial threat to the Student or to the rights or the safety, security and well-being of others to engage in their daily University activities.
 - c. The reasonableness of the terms of the temporary suspension.
5. Following the suspending authority's imposition of a temporary suspension, OSCCS or the Student Conduct Administrator will issue a Notice of Complaint to the Student within a reasonable time.
6. A temporary suspension ends when rescinded by the suspending authority or when the Complaint brought against the Student is heard and decided.

B. Other Interim Measures

The University may determine that other interim measures are necessary and appropriate to ensure the safety, security and well-being of the University community or to otherwise prevent and/or respond to allegations of misconduct while a Complaint against a Student is pending. - B. Records of cases alleging academic or professional integrity violations of the Student Conduct Code that are maintained by OSCCS and Academic Integrity in the Office of the Provost are retained permanently.
- C. Records of any cases resulting in suspension or expulsion, as well as records of cases that are not pursued because the Student Respondent withdraws from the University while a Complaint is pending against them, are retained permanently.

IX. Reporting Policy

Information regarding a Student's conduct record may be reported to internal or external agencies in accordance with the University's Student Conduct Code Violation Reporting Policy. More information is posted on OSCCS's website: Reporting Policy.

Health Risks Associated with Alcohol and Other Drugs

ALCOHOL

- Studies have shown that alcohol use by those less than 24 years old increases the risk of both fatal and nonfatal injuries.
- Research has also shown that the earlier one begins drinking the chances for alcohol dependence increases compared to adults who begin drinking at age 21.
- Other consequences include increased risky sexual behaviors, poor school performance, and increased risk of suicide and homicide.
- Young adult alcohol use has the potential to trigger long-term biological changes that may alter development as well as affect immediate behavior. The resulting adverse outcomes may include mental disorders such as anxiety and depressive disorders.” (NCBI)

The liver is extremely important. The liver is the second largest organ in your body. It processes what you eat and drink into energy and nutrients your body can use. The liver also removes harmful substances from your blood.

- Alcohol can damage or destroy liver cells.
- The liver breaks down alcohol so it can be removed from your body. Your liver can become injured or seriously damaged if you drink more alcohol than it can process.
- Alcohol-related liver diseases include “fatty liver”, alcoholic hepatitis, and alcoholic cirrhosis. These diseases can result in liver cancer, brain disorders, coma and death.
- The liver can only metabolize a certain amount at a time, leaving the excess circulating throughout the body.
- When the amount of alcohol in the blood exceeds a certain level, the respiratory system slows down markedly, and can cause a coma or death, because oxygen no longer reaches the brain.

Binge drinking and continued alcohol use in large amounts are associated with many health problems, including:

- Unintentional injuries such as car crash, falls, burns, drowning
- Intentional injuries such as firearm injuries, sexual assault, and domestic violence
- Increased on-the-job injuries and loss of productivity
- Increased family problems, broken relationships
- Alcohol poisoning
- High blood pressure, stroke, & other heart-related diseases
- Liver disease
- Nerve damage
- Sexual problems
- Permanent damage to the brain
- Vitamin B1 deficiency, which can lead to a disorder characterized by amnesia, apathy & disorientation

- Ulcers
- Gastritis (inflammation of stomach walls)
- Malnutrition
- Cancer of the mouth and throat

- Long-term effects: hypertension, high cholesterol, stunted growth, liver tumors and cancers, and heart damage. For males, side effects may include shrinking of the testicles and breast development. For females, side effects may include growth of facial hair, menstrual changes, and deepened voice.

Prescription drugs and use

Use is considered “misuse” when a prescription drug is used for something other than its intended purpose, is taken in excessive dosages, or is used by someone for whom it was not prescribed.

- Opioids: opioids such as Vicodin, Oxycontin and codeine are usually prescribed to treat pain. Misuse of these drugs can depress breathing and cause physical dependence.
- Depressants: Central nervous system (CNS) depressants—also called sedatives or tranquilizers—such as Valium, Xanax, Ambien and Lunesta are used to treat anxiety and sleep disorders. These drugs can be addictive if misused, and can slow heart rate and respiration, which can be fatal.
- Stimulants: CNS stimulants such as Ritalin, Concerta, and Adderall are prescribed to treat ADHD and narcolepsy. Taking high doses of stimulants can cause dangerous body temperatures and irregular heart rates, and can sometimes cause hostility or paranoia.

STIMULANTS AND “STUDY DRUGS”

Some students who have not been prescribed stimulants choose to buy or take someone else’s medicine because they believe that taking “study drugs” can improve their study behavior and in turn improve their grades. These students may not be aware that the drugs do not perform for them in the way they do for a person with a diagnosis. There are serious dangers associated with abusing prescription stimulants:

- Short-term: increased or irregular heartbeat and respiratory rate, elevated blood pressure, nervousness, sleep difficulty, appetite loss, blurred vision, and risk of overdose
- Contraindications: adverse effect on some pre-existing medical conditions including heart conditions and/or adverse interactions with other drugs
- Other potential risks: sudden death, misuse potential, worsening mental illness, decreased growth and weight loss, and danger to fetus or breastfeeding infants

PREVENTION/EDUCATION EFFORTS:

Peer Health Educators

A Peer Health Educator (PHE) is an undergraduate student volunteer who receives training by health professionals on the topics of alcohol/other drugs, mental health, or sexual health. They plan programming and communications to promote risk reduction and create a healthier WashU.

Year One College Behavior Profile: Y1CBP

The Year One College Behavior Profile (Y1CBP) is an evidenced-based, online, brief intervention program designed to reduce high-risk drinking, marijuana use, and related substance use among college students. The Y1CBP can also reinforce low-risk behaviors and reaffirm those who choose to abstain from alcohol and marijuana use.

Students complete the Y1CBP in a confidential platform by indicating their plans for use while in college. Based on student response, the Y1CBP gives students real-time feedback with information about their alcohol and marijuana use including risks, expectancies, perceptions of social norms, along with options for reducing problems and consequences that may be related to their use. The Y1CBP is used at WashU as a pre-matriculation prevention program, required of all entering first-year students to help correct the misconceptions students have about the prevalence of alcohol and marijuana use before they begin their college career at WashU.

BASICS (Brief Alcohol Screening Intervention for College Students)

BASICS is a two-session intervention program that provides alcohol education and harm reduction techniques through motivational interviewing. Students are referred to the Health Promotion Specialist for Alcohol and other Drugs through emergency incident reports, the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, Residential Life, the Center for Counseling and Psychological Services, or the WashU Cares Team. The students referred for BASICS may have already experienced negative consequences related to their alcohol use. This intervention is provided to students for free and includes a brief assessment of their current drinking habits. The student does the assessment online and reviews it in person with the Health Promotion Specialist for Alcohol and Other Drugs. Based on the outcomes of the two-session intervention, if the student shows signs of a substance use disorder or a more serious mental health concern, the staff member will provide referral to appropriate campus and community resources. These typically include community AA meetings, campus/community mental health providers, and/or intensive outpatient treatment or inpatient treatment facilities.

WashU Recovery Group

The university founded the WashU Recovery Group in spring 2017. This group helps students in recovery from alcohol and/or drug use to connect with others with similar experiences on campus. The group provides a safe place for students to learn about local resources, gain support, and connect during meetings and social activities. The group is not a recovery program, but is a resource that students can add to their support system while attending the university. Additional substance misuse recovery programs and meetings are offered near campus.
